To provide funds and maintain standards in institutions of higher education Government of India has established The University Grants Commission (UGC), in November 1956. UGC has established the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) as an autonomous body in September 1994 to monitor standards of the higher educational institutions. NAAC has been instilling a momentum of quality consciousness amongst Higher Educational Institutions, aiming for continuous improvement. Recognizing the importance of such institutional internal quality system the UGC has taken a policy decision to direct all colleges to establish IQAC.

C N B College has established its IQAC on 2nd February 2014 under Chairmanship of the principal Mr. Sarat Ch. Dutta who has been trying hard to improve the quality of faculty and students since the day of establishment of the College. The responsibility of Coordinator IQAC was bestowed upon me and I felt proud. Till that time I have heard about IQAC but was not aware of it. After entrustment as coordinator of IQAC I have gone through the rules and duties of the cell and constituted a committee with dynamic persons. Present IQA Cell of our College is as follows.
